THOMAS A. MULLEN is a director in the firm's Corporate and Business Law Counseling Practice Groups. His practice focuses on business transactions, particularly the structure and use of Delaware corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies and statutory trusts. Mr. Mullen's practice includes counseling corporations, investors, directors and board committees on matters involving the Delaware General Corporation Law and related fiduciary duty issues arising in a variety of transactions and circumstances, including mergers and acquisitions, defensive planning, recapitalizations and liquidations. Mr. Mullen also advises on the use of Delaware LLCs, partnerships and statutory trusts in a broad range of transactions, including structured financings, formation of private equity funds and joint ventures, and mutual fund reorganizations. Mr. Mullen frequently provides legal opinions concerning Delaware business entity statutes and corporate law issues.

Mr. Mullen is a member of the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association and of the Corporate Law and Commercial Law Sections of the Delaware State Bar Association, and serves on the committee of the Delaware State Bar Association which is responsible for proposing amendments to the Delaware statutes governing partnerships, limited partnerships and limited liability companies. He has been recognized in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business as a leading Delaware corporate/M&A and alternative entities lawyer.

Mr. Mullen received his B.A. degree from Franklin and Marshall College in 1989, and his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1992. He was admitted to the Delaware bar in 1993.
